Rainbow Dreaming

Abouth the Artist

Daisy Hill is an Aboriginal artist and proud descendant of the Muruwari people from NW NSW, currently living on Yugambeh Country (Gold Coast). Daisy's art style can be described as modern and contemporary. She paints intuitively, the same way her ancestors did. Daisy feels an overwhelming connectedness to her thoughts, feeling and spirit when she paints. She describes the painting process as being deeply spirtiual and meditative. Daisy has a passion to tell stories and strives to keep the traditions of her people alive. "It is a way from me to feel connected to the Motherland - the trees, water, sand, sun, earch and animals. I paint to convey the beauty I see in all things and to express my gratitude and achnowledge the County I am walking, living and breathing. I feel so grateful that people want to invest in my and my culture." says Daisy.

It is important to note that the symbols and stories shared are unique to Daisy Hill and her own interpretations and do not represent all First Nations people. All Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultural groups have different perspectives, interpretations and understandings of stories and knowledge passed down to them.
